

1998 AOH St. Pat's Day Run

Saturday, 14 March – Race organizer Mark Sweeney advertised the race's traditional format: "We bus runners out west and it's downhill all the way back." The entry fee was $10, and the first 250 registrants received a race t-shirt. Runners met at the back entrance of the Locker Room Bar where they loaded into four donated Karst Stage busses for an 11 a.m. departure to the starting lines up North Cable Road. Unfortunately, four busses was two too few due to 340 runners registering, an increase of 76 above last year's total. The two synchronized race starts had to be delayed while two of the unloaded Karst busses returned to the staging area to pick up additional runners.
