

2001 Frigid Digger Race

Saturday, 17 February – This year's race entry fee was $12 payable to the Digger Athletic Association, and for that fee runners received a race, a long-sleeve t-shirt and two tickets to a Tech basketball game. The races started at 11 a.m. Clear, calm and cold conditions greeted runners, and Mike Telling, who ran the 7-mile race, said "The footing coming back on the old roads was tough; you know, when the snow does that delayed giving way when you try to push off."
