

2010 Wulfman's Frigid Digger Race

Saturday, 20 February. This year marked the 20th running of the race since it began in 1987, and for the first time in that history more than one hundred runners crossed the finish line. An equal number of males and females boosted the record number of finishers to 126. The weather for the occasion wasn't too bad either. Dillon's Mike Telling, who won the 7-mile race, said "the temp [-12 °C] was pretty decent for February, but cold enough that the packed snow provided decent footing."
