

2013 Wulfman's Frigid Digger Race

Saturday, 16 February.

The races were hosted by Butte's Piss & Moan Runners, who named the event in honor of Butte endurance sports legend John Wulf. The race entry fee was again $15 for adults and included a long sleeve t-shirt and post-race refreshments. Pleasant pre-race weather drew in a record number of participants. 162 finished the slushy, muddy courses. The previous high number of finishers was 146 in 2012. The races started at 10 a.m and Butte runners won all four races. Matt Choquette won the 7.3 mile race in 46:03. Michele Bazzanella won the females' 7.3-mile in 54:45. Butte Central sophomore Conor McGee, who competes in cross country and basketball for the Maroons, won the 3-mile in 19:34. Susan Kaluza, who competed in the 50-59 age group, won the females' 3-mile in 23:32.
