A pair of former winners, Dan Sullivan of Helena and

Nicole Hunt from Deer Lodge, came home first under sunny, calm and warm conditions.

Hunt won the race for the tenth time in her running career. The ten victories broke the tie that she held with Butte's Susie Kaluza. Hunt had her first win in 1996. Hunt had a winning time this year of 36:30. Elaine Dahl of Helena was second, followed closely by high school runner Marie Waldbillig from Philipsburg.

Sullivan had previously won Montana's oldest road race in 2006. This time Sullivan beat Butte Central runner Conor McGee to take home the C. Owen Smithers trophy as the overall male winner of the event. Sullivan finished in 31:16 over the 5.2-mile course.

The winners of the 2.5 mile kids' run were Abby McGee and 10-year-old Keagan Gransbery. McGee, a freshman at Butte Central, was the overall winner of the race with a clocking of 18:08. Gransbery was clocked in 25:11.
